Foreword

The tests of English language proficiency presented in this book were developed by Integrate Ireland Language and Training (IILT), (David Little, Barbara Lazenby Simpson, Bronagh Finnegan Catibusic) with the help of language support teachers working in post-primary schools around the country.

The tests are based on the first three levels of the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference for Languages which correspond to the three proficiency levels (1, 2 and 3) used by the Department of Education and Science. In designing the tests every effort has been made to select tasks that students encounter regularly in their language support classes and to design scoring procedures that will achieve accurate results provided the tests are administered strictly according to the instructions provided.

Draft tests were presented at in-service seminars for post-primary language support teachers as follows: speaking and writing in autumn 2004, reading in spring 2005, listening in autumn 2005. Each set of tests was piloted by language support teachers working in different parts of the country. Feedback indicated that the tests were easy to administer and elicited an accurate representation of students’ English language proficiency. At the end of the piloting process the tests were revised on the basis of student performance and detailed feedback from teachers. A report on the piloting process was presented to the Department of Education and Science.

We acknowledge with gratitude the role played by language support teachers in the development of the tests. The feedback they gave us at in-service seminars and especially via the piloting process played a crucial role in determining the final form of the tests.

Introduction

Four skills
Think deeper about the learning outcome by reading these FAQs. As language proficiency for educational purposes is dependent on the appropriate development of four separate skills – listening, speaking, reading and writing – assessment should be carried out for each skill.

Assessment should take into consideration the capabilities of the peer group of native English-speaking students and be appropriate to age and year groupings.

Scoring and Rating
A grid is provided at the end of each test for scoring and rating students. All rating is carried out in relation to the first three levels of the Common Europe Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) of the Council of Europe (see www.coe.int/lang). These three CEFR levels have been articulated for post-primary learners of English as an Additional Language in Irish schools and may be seen in full on pages 166-7.

The lowest level is A1 and, for newly arrived students with no existing English language proficiency, this level becomes the first teaching/learning target.

The highest level used in the language support programme is B1. When students are capable of performing in the assessment tasks at this level, and of achieving the scores indicated, then their full integration into mainstream learning is possible.

The levels A1, A2 and B1 reflect the first three levels of the six-point scale of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. The three levels of proficiency indicated in the Department of Education and Science Circular 053/07 relate to these levels.

In order to achieve an accurate assessment of a student’s ability, each level has been divided into three sub-levels. These three levels reflect the concept of the student’s ability to perform a particular task – with a lot of help, with a little help, and with no help.
Student profile

Student assessment profile

A sheet is provided for the development of an individual student profile of proficiency in English.
It is inevitable that progress will be made at different rates across the four skills. This sheet allows for successive assessments to be recorded and for progress and achievement relative to the different skills to be immediately apparent.

Assessment tasks

All assessment tasks are derived from typical classroom activities, therefore it is not necessary to introduce an assessment activity as a test, if it is felt that this will cause undue concern to students.

Using the levels

All sets begin at level A1 and continue to level B1. It is suggested that a student should begin with A1 and continue until he/she is unable to complete a test sheet. The teacher should avoid continuing with the test as soon as it becomes clear that the student is experiencing difficulty proceeding.

At a later stage, it is suggested that the language support teacher, with knowledge of a student’s abilities, may decide to begin the assessment at a higher level. For example, it would be appropriate to continue testing at the point at which a student ended on the previous occasion.

If for some reason a student’s proficiency has dropped in the interim, due to absence from school, return to his/her home country etc., it may be necessary to lower the starting point of the assessment.

Introducing new activities under test conditions

If it is thought that a particular task or process in assessment is unfamiliar to a student and may cause additional uncertainty, it is recommended that the teacher introduce this in advance.

For example, if a teacher decides to record the assessment of ‘speaking’ in order to score the student’s performance afterwards, it may be necessary to introduce the use of a recording device to the class in advance.
Timing
Strict timing has not been indicated on any tests.

The recordings for testing Listening will inevitably dictate the time required for these tests.

For Speaking, Reading and Writing it is appropriate that the teacher administering the tests should judge the matter of timing in relation to the ages and levels of proficiency of students.

Providing assistance to students
It is important to ensure that students understand fully what they are expected to do. Teachers should use the sample answer which is provided in every test (apart from Speaking tests) to point out what should be done, for example circle a word, draw a line, complete a text and so on.

No other assistance should be provided.

Ending the test
It will be clear when a student is unable to continue a test and it is appropriate to end the test at that point.

Monitoring and recording students’ progress
An individual file for each student should be maintained by the Language Support Teacher to include all assessments, scoring sheets and student assessment profiles. Samples of students’ written work should also be maintained on files and dated accordingly.

Meeting the needs of post-primary students
The tests reflect the real needs of post-primary students in meeting the challenge of engaging with mainstream subject learning. The focus of the tests, therefore, is on the English language necessary for engagement with mainstream classroom learning and for socialization in the school.

The tests are intended for use across both junior and senior cycles.
Administration of assessment tasks

The tests are located in the pack as shown below.

<table>

For all LISTENING assessments

- Before starting the recording, the teacher should indicate the sample answer, on the relevant answer sheet, and ensure that students understand what they are expected to do e.g. draw a line, insert a number, insert a tick, or circle.
- As the recording begins, the teacher should again indicate the sample answer in response to the sample question.
- Students must not be given any further assistance during the test.

For all SPEAKING assessments

- All tests of speaking are based on pictures.
- The question prompts for teachers are provided as an integral part of the test.
- Teachers should restrict interaction to the prompts provided.
- It is important that the teacher familiarises him/herself with the descriptors contained in the grid at the top of each test in advance of administering the test.
- If a teacher feels uncertain about carrying out the test while scoring the student’s performance at the same time, it would be appropriate, where possible, to use the assistance of another teacher, or to record the test for scoring afterwards.

For all READING assessments

- The instructions for each task are indicated on the assessment sheet.
- An example is provided on each sheet.
- If necessary, teachers may provide support (non-verbal or verbal) in order to ensure that pupils understand fully the requirements of each stage. For example, the teacher may hold up a test sheet and indicate the sample answer.
- No additional help should be given as the purpose of the test is to determine the student’s ability to read the assessment tasks.
For all WRITING assessments

- Assessment at levels A1 and A2 is based on picture prompts. Level B1 assessment requires free writing.
- An example is provided on each sheet of the level A1 and A2 tests.
- If necessary, teachers may provide support (non-verbal or verbal) in order to ensure that pupils understand fully the requirements of each stage. For example, the teacher may hold up a test sheet, indicate the sample answer and indicate that the pupil should write his/her answers on the blank lines provided.
- Students must not be given any further assistance during the test.

In all cases, the teacher may end the test when it is evident that a student is no longer able to continue.
Scoring and Rating

Listening and Reading

All listening and reading tests present six questions.

In every case, the first question is an example.

The remaining five answers are scored with 1 point each.

At each level A1, A2 and B1

15 answers in total, equalling 15 points per level.

Rating the performance of a student:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Student's total score at any one level</th>

<th>The next stage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>13 – 15</td>
<td>B1.3</td>
<td>Student has reached the objective of language support.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

When this has been reached for all four skills, the student is ready for full integration into the mainstream.
Speaking

Scoring is carried out simultaneously during the tests of speaking. Alternately, the test may be recorded for later scoring.

Each question in the speaking tests is made up of a number of sub-questions, or prompts. The student is scored on his/her overall performance in the set of sub-questions. This allows for more accurate assessment as the student is not marked down by failure to know a single word.

4 sub-questions or prompts

Example:
Question 5. Now think about our school.
What is the name of our school?
Tell me one thing about the room that you are in now.
Tell me one thing that you like to do at school.

Level A1
Assessment is carried out in relation to Vocabulary and Pronunciation only:

Initial interview assessment for new students

On the following page there is a set of questions for initial interview assessment of a new student. An interpretation of this assessment is provided below.

The purpose of this interview is to gain an initial view of a student's proficiency in Listening and Speaking. A more detailed assessment of language proficiency will be conducted following a settling-down period.

The interpretation provided allows the student’s early performance to be rated at A1, A2 and B1. In the case that there appears to be a complete absence of any English language proficiency, the grade 0 (zero) may be applied.

The levels A1, A2 and B1 may be equated to Levels 1, 2 and 3 as applied by the Department of Education and Science.

- It is important to remember that language proficiency will generally not be consistent at the same level across all language skills and different thematic areas. Learning objectives should be set in accordance with observed individual strengths and weaknesses.

- It should also be noted that it may be difficult to obtain a clear view of a student's proficiency at an initial interview. Many factors can influence performance including strangeness, shyness, fear, etc.

Placement Tests

Set 1

The set of tests for Placement is intended for use within the first month of a student's arrival in school. This set does not include specific curriculum learning but assumes general awareness of school and school subjects. The focus of this set of tests is on Personal Identification, Classroom Interaction and Learning how to Learn.

Listening

Notes for teachers

- The test tasks are based on recordings, which can be found by clicking the link below.
- A number of the tasks are presented as conversations or readings.
- Each test is introduced by an example which appears on the answer sheet.
- It is appropriate for the teacher to indicate how the sample question has been answered (e.g. by drawing a line, circling the correct answer etc.)
- No other assistance should be provided during the test.
- The teacher may end the test when it is evident that a student is no longer able to continue.
- In the test for Listening at Level B1 (iii) the concept of 'smiley faces' is used. Teachers should confirm that students are familiar with this means of indicating negative, neutral and positive feelings or views.

Speaking

Notes for teachers

- All levels of this test are based on the pictures, which can be found in the link below.
- The question prompts for teachers are provided as an integral part of the test.
- Teachers should restrict interaction to the prompts provided.
- It is important that the teacher familiarises him/herself with the descriptors contained in the grid at the top of each test in advance of administering the test.
- Level A1 is marked in relation to Vocabulary and Pronunciation.
- Levels A2 and B1 are marked in relation to Vocabulary, Grammar and Pronunciation.
- If a teacher feels uncertain about carrying out the test while scoring the students’ performance at the same time, it would be appropriate, where possible, to use the assistance of another teacher, or to record the test for scoring afterwards.
- The timing of these tests is determined by strict adherence to the prompts provided.
- If a student has obvious difficulty responding, then the test should end at that point. The student’s current level of proficiency may be taken as the point at which he/she was unable to answer two or more questions in succession.
Reading

Notes for teachers

• The instructions for each task are indicated on the assessment sheet.
• An example is provided on each sheet.
• At level B1 all three tests are based on the three texts, which are introduced for the test B1 (i).
• If necessary, teachers may provide support (non-verbal or verbal) in order to ensure that students understand fully the requirements of each stage. For example, the teacher may hold up a test sheet and indicate the sample answer.
• No additional help should be given, as the purpose of the test is to determine the student’s ability to read the assessment tasks.
• There is no strict time guideline for the reading assessment as the time taken by students may vary. However, teachers should observe the progress of students through the tests and allow similar time for completion as for a native-speaking group of students.
• The teacher may end the test when it is evident that a student is no longer able to continue.

Writing

Notes for teachers

• At levels A1 and A2 assessment is based on picture prompts.
• An example is provided on each A1 and A2 sheet.
• If necessary, teachers may provide support (non-verbal or verbal) in order to ensure that students understand fully the requirements of each stage. For example, the teacher may hold up a test sheet, indicate the sample answer and indicate that the student should write his/her answers on the blank lines provided.
• At level B1 the test requires free writing.
• At Levels A2(ii) and B1 scoring is carried out in relation to descriptors for Writing at these levels.

The individual profiling form on the following page allows for a student’s proficiency to be recorded in relation to performance in tests.

The sheet is divided into columns which represent the three main levels, A1, A2 and B1. Each of these levels is subdivided into three to allow for accurate monitoring and to reflect the scoring of assessment tests. Progress can be recorded by shading the relevant boxes (example 1), drawing a line through the boxes (example 2) or ticking (example 3). Shading and using a continuous line both allow for partial proficiency at a level to be recorded.

Information should be entered with the date of the assessment. It is important to note that the rate of progress demonstrated by students in the different skills of language will generally differ. Reading and listening may develop more quickly than speaking and writing.

Students of Coláiste Mhuire, Ennis are flying high having won two awards in the Young Environmentalist Race Against Waste competition. The school _______ an award in the senior category for their project on Irish birds. They also received a _______ in the creative category for composing a special “litter song”. The awards were _______ by the Minister for the Environment, Heritage and Local Government at a _______ in Dublin. For the Irish birds project, the students made a CD-Rom explaining how to identify garden birds and _______ information about where these birds live. The students also prepared a slide show about Irish birds for use in local primary schools.
Read and complete the three texts below by putting a circle around the correct word in each box.

1. SMOKING – A WORLDWIDE PROBLEM
   Tobacco is the second major cause to / from / of death in the world. It is currently responsible for the death of one in ten adults worldwide (about 5 million deaths each year). If current smoking patterns continue, it will cause some 10 million deaths each year by 2025. Half the people that smoke today will eventually be killed by tobacco. Smoking and poverty are also linked. Studies have showed / shown / showing that in the poorest households in some low-income countries as much as 10% of total household spending is on tobacco. This means that these families have less money for basic necessities such / like / same as food, education and health care. In this way, tobacco leads to malnutrition and expensive medical bills. Also, money that could have been used for education is spent on tobacco instead. (World Health Organisation, 2004)

2. FEEL FREE TO SAY NO
   You don’t need cigarettes to be cool or successful!
   BUT .. Tobacco companies are always looking for new smokers and marketing cigarettes among young people couldn’t / can / wouldn’t mean big business. An average smoker spends approximately 50,000 Euro on cigarettes in his or her lifetime. (E.U. initiative, 2003)

3. SMOKING IN IRELAND
   In Ireland it has / have / is estimated that 7000 people die each year from smoking related diseases. However, the National Health and Lifestyles Survey revealed a 4% decline in smoking rates, from 31% of the population in 1998 to 27% in 2002. Rates of smoking among young people are decreasing too, as the graphs below indicate. Also, since 29th March 2004, smoking has been banned in all workplaces including pubs and restaurants in Ireland. This anti-smoking law is a very important initiative for health that is now being followed in other countries. Ireland is indeed leading the fight for / against / by smoking in Europe.

   Percentage of boys who report they are current smokers
   Percentage of girls who report they are current smokers

A2. (i) THE LIBRARY

   Our school has a big new library. It has lots of very interesting books.
   We go to the library to borrow books.
   These students are looking at some history books.
   They want to know what life was like long ago.
   Their teacher told them to read about it first.
   Then they have to write an essay for homework.

A2. (ii) (Possible response:)

   SAM’S BUSY DAY
   1. Yesterday morning, Sam came to school by bus.
   2. At school he studied hard in English class.
   3. Then he painted a picture in art.
   4. At lunch time he ate a sandwich and drank some water.
   5. After lunch he had biology and he used a microscope.
   6. Then he played basketball in PE.
   7. After school he went home and did his homework.
Dear Una,

My name is Max and I am fourteen years old. I am in second year at Riverside Community School. I have one younger sister, called Eva, who is ten. We came to Ireland with our parents last year. We really like living here, but sometimes we miss our cousins and our old friends a little. My grandparents and all the rest of my family live in Poland. We will go to visit them in the summer holidays.

The thing I like best is football. I'm good at it and I play for our school team. We practice every Thursday after school and we have a big match next week so we need to train hard. I like other sports too, especially basketball and running. I think that sport is good because it keeps you healthy. You can also make new friends if you play in a team. I like listening to music as well because it can make you feel happy. My favourite kind of music is rap. Write to me soon and tell me about the things you like.

Write back soon,

Max.

OUR OUTDOOR PURSUITS TRIP
The day of events started with orienteering. We had to use a map to find our way along a cross-country route. It was _______ difficult and we almost got lost. After lunch we took to the water and tried canoeing. It was very _______ because there were a lot of strong waves on the lake. By the time we had finished, we were soaking wet and very cold. When we had _______ off, we went on to the next activity - climbing the outdoor wall. It was really high and _______ everyone made it to the top! At the end of the day we _______ exhausted, but the trip had been extremely enjoyable.
Read and complete the three texts below by putting a circle around the correct word in each box. The first one is done for you.

1. Get up and Go!
The "Get up and Go" mini-company programme allows Transition Year students to experience the world of business. Students set down/up/out companies that either produce a product or offer a service - anything from making crafts to washing cars! Through the programme, students learn about all aspects of running a business, from starting up to winding down. They must also use their creativity and initiative while working together as a team. Each year, regional trade fairs are/have/were organised across the country for school mini-companies. The fairs are very enjoyable occasions and, for the most enterprising schools, participation may even lead to national awards.

2. Web of ideas
Schools in Donegal have been use/used/using the Internet for a range of projects. In technology related subjects, students found many websites offering good ideas for classroom tasks. In some schools, students used the Internet when designing their Junior Certificate projects for materials technology wood (MTW). This information helped it/them/they to do some impressive work, including the production of items such as small tables, bookshelves and bedside lockers. Fifth year engineering students also used Internet resources to design mechanisms to scare away unwelcome birds.

3. Stunning Space-Bug!
Congratulations to students from Moyne Community School who participated in the final of the Form and Fusion Competition. The students had/can/must to work as a team to design and construct wild, wonderful and imaginative costumes out of alternative waste materials. Altogether, 8,500 costumes were designed in schools throughout Ireland, and 3,500 of these were then judged in preliminary heats. One design created by students from Moyne Community School was selected to go forward to the Grand Final. The school was delighted which/where/when this science-fiction inspired entry, "Nefarious The Space Bug", came second overall, winning a prize of €1,300. The students were also presented with a specially commissioned piece of glasswork to mark their achievement.
The lines below were taken from the three texts about school projects.
Read these lines and decide which texts they were taken from.

A SPORT THAT I LIKE

Tennis is a sport that I like a lot. It is played outside on a tennis court. Usually there are two players, but sometimes there are four in "doubles" matches. The players use tennis rackets to hit a small ball over a net. They must not miss the ball or let it fall outside the lines on the court. The first player to hit the ball is called the server. A player serves for one game and then it the other player's turn. You need more than forty points to win a game and you must win at least six games to win a set. It is easier to win a game when you are serving, but the other player will always try to win points and break your serve. In women's tennis matches there are usually three sets, but in men's tennis there can be five sets. I like tennis because it is very exciting and I like to play outside. Last year I won a tennis competition at school so now I want to play more and more. I am going to join the tennis club in my town so that I can learn more about this sport.

ROMEO AND JULIET
by William Shakespeare.

This play is about two young lovers, Romeo and Juliet. They must meet secretly because their families are enemies. Things get even more difficult when Romeo kills Juliet's cousin. Meanwhile, Juliet's family want her to marry another man. To stop this, Juliet takes a medicine that makes her appear to be dead. However, Romeo does not know about Juliet's arrangements. Romeo finds Juliet and believes that she is really dead. He cannot survive without her, so he drinks poison and dies. Juliet wakes up and, when she sees Romeo lying beside her, she stabs herself with his sword.

   In the new Limerick Youth Services building in the heart of the city centre the Limerick Youth Dance Company meet every Wednesday evening for a two-hour session. [Its / Their / Our] members are aged between twelve and sixteen and they practise an energetic mix of hip-hop and contemporary dance. Aisling, aged 13 [has / had / was] never really danced before she joined Limerick Youth Dance Company, but she finds the activity very enjoyable. “I really like the exercise and meeting people in class”, she says. During each session, the teenagers are eager to share new dance routines they have put together themselves. They are also looking forward to several public performances, including participation in the Youth Dance Festival.

3. AGE GAP? WHAT AGE GAP?

“Living Scenes” is a Transition Year project that takes place at Presentation Secondary School, Galway each year. Retired people come into the school to learn skills alongside transition year students. Age is not a problem, as one of the grown-up participants, Brian O’Malley, says: “With these young people, you meet them on an equal level”. The students are likewise impressed by the energy and confidence of their visitors. [Either / Neither / Both] old and young take classes in arts, crafts, creative writing and drama. The highlight of last year’s scheme was the group’s production of a play, performed for two nights at the An Taibhdhearc theatre in Galway. The success of this programme has been [recognise / recognised / recognising] not only by students and teachers, but also by the older people involved.

5. DANNY: Emma, do you like listening to music?
6. EMMA: Yeah, and I’m singing in the school show.
7. DANNY: That’s great, I must go to see it.
A short time ago I read “Harry Potter and the Philosopher’s Stone” by J.K. Rowling. It tells the story of a young boy named Harry who lives with his horrible aunt and uncle. Harry has magical powers and, when he is eleven years old, he gets the chance to go to Hogwarts school for wizards and witches.

Harry makes a lot of new friends at Hogwarts, like Hermione and Ron, but there are also some bad kids too, like Malfoy. Harry sometimes gets into trouble at school, but the most dangerous moment in the story is when he has to fight with a three-headed dog.

I really enjoyed this book as it is very exciting and Harry is a really interesting character. This was the longest book I ever read in English and at first I thought I wouldn’t like reading it because it was too long. There were some new words but I didn’t have too many problems with them.

I think that other people should read this book because it is a good story and also, because it is the first in a series of books about Harry Potter. I am reading the second Harry Potter book now.

Global Benchmarks of Communicative Proficiency (from English language proficiency benchmarks for non-English-speaking students at post-primary level, IILT, 2003)

Self-assessment grid of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages
Global benchmarks of communicative proficiency

Listening

Can understand basic words and phrases concerning himself/herself, family and school.
Can understand simple questions and instructions when teachers and other students speak slowly and clearly and use visual cues (facial expression, gesture, mime, etc.).
Can understand phrases and the highest frequency vocabulary related to himself/herself and family, classroom activities and routines, school instructions and procedures, friends and out-of-class activities.
Can understand routine instructions given in all school contexts (classroom, gym, playground, etc.) and outside school (e.g., by a traffic warden).
Can follow at a general level topics covered in the mainstream class when key concepts and vocabulary have been studied in advance and there is appropriate visual support.
Can understand detailed instructions given in all school contexts (classroom, gym, playground, etc.).
Can understand the main points of topics that are presented and texts that are read aloud in the mainstream classroom provided that key concepts and vocabulary have been studied in advance.
Can understand the main points of a short film on a familiar topic relevant to the mainstream curriculum.
Can follow classroom talk between two or more native speakers, only occasionally needing to request clarification.

Reading

Can recognize the letters of the alphabet and numbers.
Can understand basic signs and simple notices in the school and on the way to school.
Can understand basic words on labels/posters in the classroom and on maps, diagrams, etc. in textbooks.
Can read and understand the main points in texts encountered in the mainstream class, provided the thematic area and key vocabulary are already familiar or specially prepared in advance.
Can read and understand very short, simple texts that contain a high proportion of previously learnt vocabulary.
Can use key words, diagrams, illustrations and comprehension questions to find specific information in mainstream textbooks.
Can read and understand descriptions of events, feelings and wishes in personal letters, newspapers/magazines and short stories.
Can follow clearly written instructions (e.g., for carrying out a classroom task, conducting an experiment, assembling or using a piece of equipment, etc.).

Note: These benchmarks are approximate and subjective, based on the level of fluency and language proficiency achieved by learners in different contexts.

Now look at these ten pictures.
You will hear about Ahmed and Maria.
They are talking about their school timetable.
You will hear this twice.

While you are listening the first time, you must choose six pictures that show their activities today and put these pictures in the correct order, by numbering them 1, 2, 3, as you hear them.
The second time you can check your answers.
The first one is done for you.

Maria greeted Ahmed in the corridor, ‘Hi, Ahmed, how are you getting on?’
‘Well, OK so far,’ Ahmed replied, ‘but I’m not too sure about today’s classes’.
‘Yeah, they’ve been changed around a bit,’ Maria said. ‘Here, let me check. Hmm .. Tuesday. Well, we still have technology first’.
‘OK, technology, and after that, French?’ asked Ahmed.
‘No, you’re looking at Monday’s timetable’, said Maria.
‘Right, so it’s maths then?’ Ahmed asked.
‘Yeah, we never miss it!’ Maria replied.

‘And then business studies?’ asked Ahmed.
‘No,’ said Maria, ‘we don’t have business today because the doctor’s coming. Did you forget? Ms. Brennan told us yesterday’.
‘OK’, said Ahmed, ‘so then it’s lunch, and then history. No, sorry, I mean geography’.
‘Oh no!’ Maria cried, ‘I still haven’t finished my project’.
‘The one on world weather?’ Ahmed asked. ‘Oh, I handed that up last week. Have you studied for the science test, though?’
‘Not yet,’ Maria replied, ‘it’s not ‘til Thursday’.
‘But we’ve got science last two classes today,’ Ahmed pointed out.
‘No not today’, Maria reminded him, ‘we’re going to a play instead. Did you not hear about that?’

‘No ... nobody told me,’ replied Ahmed.
‘There’s a drama group coming at 2.30. It’s for English .. everyone has to go,’ said Maria.
‘And I spent hours studying last night!’ Ahmed groaned.
‘Don’t worry,’ said Maria, ‘you’ll have less to do tomorrow’.

Now listen carefully again and check your answers while you are listening.

Conversation is played a second time with pauses.

Now listen to Ahmed and Maria talking about what they are doing.
After each part of the conversation you will hear one or two questions.
Look at the answer grid.
You choose the correct answer for each question by ticking:

   Ahmed or Maria or Ahmed and Maria. The first question is answered for you.

Now listen carefully.

Ahmed Hi, Maria, how are things?
Maria Fine .. Are you going home now?
Ahmed Yes .. What about you?
Maria Not yet, I’ve got basketball practice in the gym.

1. Number one, number one.
   Who is not going straight home after school?
   The answer is Maria because she is going to basketball practice after school.
   Ahmed Basketball practice on a Friday?
   Maria Yes, we’ve a competition on Sunday.
   Ahmed Here?
   Maria No, down in the sports centre.
   Ahmed Really? I go swimming there every Sunday afternoon.
   Maria I might see you then.

2. Number two, number two.

   Maria    I was really disappointed I’ll just have to study harder, I suppose.
   Ahmed    Call me if you need any help, OK?

5. Number five, number five.
   Who was not happy about the test?
   Maria    Thanks, I probably will, are you busy tomorrow?
   Ahmed    Not really I just have to go into town to buy a present for my little sister. It’s her birthday.
   Maria    That’s nice, well I’ll ring you sometime in the evening then.
   Ahmed    Cool ... and see you on Sunday, maybe?
   Maria    Yeah .. maybe.

6. Number six, number six.
   Who will go shopping at the weekend?

Now listen to the conversation and the questions again, and check your answers.

   c. dancing.
5. Question five:
What has Maria recently begun to learn?
   a. to sing.
   b. to play the guitar.
   c. to play the piano.

6. Question six:
Which part of the world would Maria like to visit?
   a. The United States of America.
   b. South America.
   c. Australia.

Now listen carefully to Maria speaking and answer the questions.
You will hear Maria speak once only.

There are so many things I like to do with my friends. On school days we just chat together at lunchtime, but at the weekend we often visit each other’s houses or sometimes go to the cinema. We like going shopping too, especially for clothes or CDs. It’s a pity they’re all so expensive, though. Most of the time, I just end up buying a few magazines instead. My favourite sport is basketball and I’ve been a member of the school team since the autumn. We usually practise once a week after school. This year we’ve done quite well and we’re going to take part in the national championship in the spring. I hope we’ll win!

My best friend and I also joined a dance class last summer and we go to it on Mondays and Wednesdays. It’s great exercise and we learn lots of new dances from different places. At the moment we’re doing some amazing dances from South America. I love music too. I sing in a choir and I’ve been playing the piano for about two years. I’ve just started going to guitar lessons as well. When I was younger, I used to want to become a pop star and to live in the USA, but now my dream is to travel all over the world. I’d really love to go to Australia, because I’ve seen a lot about it on TV and it looks fantastic.

Now listen to the questions again and choose your answers.

   a. He doesn’t want to become a doctor.
   b. He wants to become an engineer.
   c. He doesn’t want to become a pilot.

Listen now to Ahmed speaking and circle the correct sentences.
You will hear Ahmed speak once only.

I remember my first day at this school last September. I had only come to Ireland in June and everything was still very strange. I was so nervous because I knew very little English then. I was scared that I wouldn’t make any new friends. Luckily I was wrong. The other students in my class were really nice. I also joined the school athletics club, because I’ve always loved running, and this helped me to get to know more people. I felt very happy when I won the 100 metres at the school sports last week. I play a lot of football with my friends, too. They even want to teach me how to play rugby, but I’ve only tried it a few times so far. It was great fun, though.
I’m getting used to my school subjects as well. My teachers helped me a lot at the beginning and I can understand things much better now. My favourite subject has always been maths, but I’m good at science too. Subjects that need a lot of English, like history and geography, are the most difficult for me but I try my best. I’d like to be able to pass all my exams and to go to university when I leave school. My father wants me to be a doctor like him, but I would rather study something like engineering because I like working with machines.

Now listen to the sets of sentences again and check your answers.

1. Number one - this is the example set:
   a. Ahmed came to Ireland last September.
   b. Ahmed came to Ireland last June.
   c. Ahmed started school last June.

2. Number two:
   a. He was worried about learning English.
   b. He was lucky because he knew English.
   c. He was afraid of making friends.

3. Number three:
   a. He will run in the school sports next week.
   b. He won a running race a short time ago.
   c. He wants to join the athletics club.

4. Number four:
   a. He has not played much football.
   b. He has played a lot of rugby.
   c. He has not played much rugby.

5. Number five:
   a. He finds science more difficult than history.
   b. He finds history easier than geography.
   c. He finds science easier than history.

6. Number six:
   a. He doesn’t want to become a doctor.
   b. He wants to become an engineer.
   c. He doesn’t want to become a pilot.

Ahmed and Maria are talking together.
First, you will hear some questions about their feelings.
Read the questions as you listen but do not try to answer them yet.
Question 1 has been answered already.

1. Question one - this is the example:
   How does Maria feel about the science question?
   You will see a “tick” in the box under the sad face.
   You will hear that Maria does not like the science question.
2. Question two:
   How does Ahmed feel now about speaking English?

3. Question three:
   How does Ahmed feel now about watching television in Ireland?

4. Question four:
   How does Maria feel about horror movies?

5. Question five:
   How does Maria feel about rainy weather?

6. Question six:
   How does Ahmed feel about the food in Ireland?

Listen to Ahmed and Maria speaking now.
Then listen to the questions and tick their views:

The smiling face shows they like something.
The straight face shows they think something is OK.
The sad face shows they don’t like something.
You will hear the conversation once only.

MARIA Hi, Ahmed, can I ask you about this science question. I think I’ve made a mess of it.

AHMED Sure, let me see. No, it’s fine ... you’ve got the right idea.

MARIA Really? I hate those kind of problems... but thanks for checking it.

AHMED Any time.

MARIA So how are you getting on with your English?

AHMED Good, I understand almost everything now and I find that speaking is usually OK. I still don’t like writing, though.

MARIA Don’t worry about it you just need more time.

AHMED Yes you’re probably right. At least I’m starting to enjoy TV again. At first it was far too difficult for me, but now I hardly notice that all the programmes are in English.

MARIA No way! I wish I could do that in another language.

AHMED It’s not that hard, I just kept watching a little every day, like last night I watched a really good film called “Scream” ... did you see it?

MARIA No, I can’t stand horror movies.

AHMED It wasn’t that scary. You should’ve watched it.

MARIA I was busy last night. It was nearly 10 o clock before I got home from my dance class. The weather was awful.

AHMED Yeah, that’s one thing I don’t like about Ireland, the rain!

MARIA I don’t really mind the rain, I hate the wind, though.

AHMED I miss the sun and the food.

MARIA Yeah, the food here isn’t great.

AHMED It’s not too bad, I suppose, and we can still make our own kind of meals too. It’s just difficult to get some of my favourite things.’

MARIA Mmm, I wouldn’t like that.
Now listen to the questions again and choose your answers.

Grace and Jun are putting up pictures for the school art exhibition.
They are trying to decide where these six pictures should go on the notice board.
Listen to Grace and Jun and, for each part of their conversation, write the number of the picture that they talk about in the right place on the notice board.
The first one is done for you. Listen now and find where they put the picture of the house.

1. Number one, number one.
   Girl: Right, we’ve got the picture of the flowers at the bottom and the picture of the sea at the top..
   Boy: Yeah, but where’ll we put this one?
   Girl: The house? Mmm .. I’d put it in the middle, right above the flowers. What do you think?
   Boy: Yes .. looks OK.
   Girl: Right, we’ve got the picture of the flowers at the bottom and the picture of the sea at the top..
   Boy: Yeah, but where’ll we put this one?
   Girl: The house? Mmm .. I’d put it in the middle, right above the flowers. What do you think?
   Boy: Yes .. looks OK.

2. Number two, number two.
   Boy: And the picture of the girl?
   Girl: It should go on the top row.
   Boy: What about here, in the left-hand corner?
   Girl: Yes, beside the picture of the sea.
Boy: And the picture of the girl?
Girl: It should go on the top row.
Boy: What about here, in the left-hand corner?
Girl: Yes, beside the picture of the sea.

3. Number three, number three.
Girl: Now the car.
Boy: Mmm .. it’s fantastic. We should put it right in the middle, there, beside the house.
Girl: Under the picture of the sea?
Boy: Yeah.
Girl: Now the car.
Boy: Mmm .. it’s fantastic. We should put it right in the middle, there, beside the house.
Girl: Under the picture of the sea?
Boy: Yeah.

4. Number four, number four.
Boy: What about the lion, though? It’s really good too.
Girl: Maybe put it on the top row?
Boy: No, we need more at the bottom. How about here, beside the flowers?
Girl: You mean in the right-hand corner? Yeah, that’d be good.
Boy: What about the lion, though? It’s really good too.
Girl: Maybe put it on the top row?
Boy: No, we need more at the bottom. How about here, beside the flowers?
Girl: You mean in the right-hand corner? Yeah, that’d be good.

5. Number five, number five.
Girl: Now where’ll the picture of the mountain go?
Boy: On the other side of the house maybe? Or no .. it’d look better down in the corner.
Girl: On the left?
Boy: Yeah, there at the very bottom.
Girl: Now where’ll the picture of the mountain go?
Boy: On the other side of the house maybe? Or no .. it’d look better down in the corner.
Girl: On the left?
Boy: Yeah, there at the very bottom.

6. Number six, number six.
Boy: And the man with the trumpet?
Girl: Let’s see. Somewhere in the middle or at the top.
Boy: How about here in the right-hand corner?
Girl: No, move him left a little, next to the picture of the sea.
Boy: OK?
Girl: Yes. Now we need four more pictures from the art room.
Boy: And the man with the trumpet?
Girl: Well, we need more in the middle and at the top.
Boy: How about here in the right-hand corner?
Girl: No, move him left a little, put him next to the picture of the sea.
Boy: OK?
Girl: Yes. Now we need four more pictures from the art room.

Now look at these ten pictures.
Grace and Jun are talking about how to make a cake.
You will hear their conversation twice.
While you are listening the first time, you must choose six pictures that show the things they use to make their cake and put these pictures in the correct order, by numbering them 1, 2, 3, as you hear them.
The second time you can check your answers.
The first one is done for you.

Jun: Here’s the recipe. Victoria sponge cake. But what should we do?
Grace: Well, first it says that we have to put 175g of sugar and the same amount of margarine in a bowl. I’ve measured the sugar already.
Jun: OK, I’ll get the margarine.
Grace: Good. Now we’re supposed to mix the sugar and margarine with an electric food mixer.
Jun: Right here’s the mixer.

Jun: Phew! That took a lot of mixing, now what?
Grace: Eggs. Give me two. Or no, I need three.
Jun: Here you are. What’s next?
Grace: Now add 175g of self-raising flour.
Jun: Flour? Oh no, I forgot to measure it.
Grace: Then give me the weighing scales.
Jun: Here.
Grace: 175g of flour.
Jun: Yeah. Let me put it in.

Grace: Great. Now it’s ready for the oven.
Jun: But what about the jam?
Grace: You must be joking. The jam is for after, when the cake’s cooked.
Jun: So I can put the mixture straight into a tin then?
Grace: Yeah.
Jun: Like this rectangular one?
Grace: No, it says you should divide it between two sandwich tins.
JUN: What?

GRACE: I think they mean those circular ones over there.

JUN: Right. Get them fast!

Now listen carefully again and check your answers while you are listening.

JUN: Here's the recipe. Victoria sponge cake. But what should we do?

GRACE: Well, first it says that we have to put 175g of sugar and the same amount of margarine in a bowl. I've measured the sugar already.

Level A2. (iii)

Now listen to Grace and Jun talking about the school sports day.
After each part of their conversation you will hear one or two questions.
Look at the answer grid
You choose the correct answer for each question by ticking: Grace, or Jun, or Grace and Jun.
The first question is answered for you. Now listen carefully.
JUN: Congratulations, Grace, I hear you did really well in the high jump.
GRACE: Yeah, I won.
GRACE: Yeah, I saw you jumping, how did it go?
JUN: I came third.

1. Number one, number one.
   Who came first in a jumping competition?
   The answer is Grace because she won the high jump competition.
   GRACE: Very good. Did you get anything else?
   JUN: Yeah. I was on the relay team and we came second, so I got a silver for that.
   GRACE: No way! I got a bronze medal in the girls’ relay. Our team came third even though we hadn’t practised at all.
   JUN: Really? Our class did pretty well then.

2. Number two, number two.
   Who won a silver medal?

3. Number three, number three.
   Who won a medal in the relay race?
   GRACE: Yeah, and I won the 100 metre sprint too.
   JUN: I don’t believe you! Three medals, with two golds! I thought I was doing OK getting two.
   GRACE: Don’t worry, you did well. Bet you’ll win three medals next year.

4. Number four, number four.
   Who won three medals altogether?
   JUN: I could’ve won more this time if I hadn’t fallen.
   GRACE: Why, what happened to you?
   JUN: Were you playing in the five-a-side soccer tournament?
   GRACE: Yeah, I thought it was great fun.
   JUN: Not for me.
   GRACE: Why?
   JUN: Well, our team was winning and I had just scored when I twisted my ankle and had to drop out.
   GRACE: Oh no, was it bad?
   JUN: Only sprained. But after I went off, we lost the match and then I couldn’t take part in any other competitions.

5. Number five, number five.
   Who took part in the soccer competition?

6. Number six, number six.
   Who got hurt on sports day?
Now listen to the conversation and the questions again and check your answers.

JUN: Congratulations, Grace, I hear you did really well in the high jump.

Grace is interviewing another student, Sergei, for a school radio project. Sergei is talking about winter sports.

First, you will hear some questions about the interview.
Read the questions as you listen but do not try to answer them yet.

Question 1 has been answered already.

1. Question one:
   When did Sergei learn to ski?
   a. When he was six years old.
   b. When he was eleven years old.
   c. When he was in third year.
   The correct answer is “a” – when he was six years old.
   You will hear that Sergei learned to ski when he was six years old.

2. Question two:
   Who took part in a national competition in Russia?
   a. Sergei.
   b. Sergei’s father.
   c. Sergei’s brother.

3. Question three:
   What did Sergei think about his first winter in Ireland?
   a. He didn’t think it was terribly cold.
   b. He thought it was really freezing.
   c. He didn’t mind the Irish winter.

4. Question four:
   How good were Sergei’s friends at ice-skating?
   a. Some of them were very good.
   b. Some of them weren’t bad.
   c. None of them knew how to skate.

5. Question five:
   What advice does Sergei give to new skiers?
   a. You should learn how to fall properly.
   b. You should try not to fall over.
   c. You should be afraid of getting hurt.

6. Question six:
   Which of these sports would Sergei like to start?
   a. Swimming
   b. Surfing
   c. Hurling
Now listen carefully to Grace interviewing Sergei and answer the questions.
You will hear the interview once only.

GRACE: Our first guest is Sergei. He’s a third year student and a winter sports expert.

SERGEI: Hi, Grace. OK, I can tell you about skiing because I lived in Russia until I was eleven years old and I learnt to ski when I was six.

GRACE: Really?

SERGEI: Yeah. My father taught me. I was quite good at skiing and I won some local competitions, but my older brother was better. He qualified for the national championships when he was only fourteen.

GRACE: So what did you think of winter in Ireland?

SERGEI: Well, the first year was terrible. I didn’t mind that it wasn’t so cold because in Russia the winter is really freezing. But I missed not being able to ski.

GRACE: You can skate here, though, can’t you?

SERGEI: Yeah. I went to an ice rink in Dublin with my friends. It was funny. There were a few very good skaters and some others who weren’t bad. But most people hadn’t a clue about skating, especially my friends.

GRACE: Some of our students are going on a ski-trip next month. Can you give them any tips?

SERGEI: Hmm. If you haven’t skied before, don’t be afraid. Just don’t try anything crazy and learn how to fall properly or else you might get hurt.

GRACE: Good advice. And what about you, what other sports do you do now?

SERGEI: I go swimming and I’ve even started to play hurling at school, but I’d love to try some new water sports like surfing or jet-skiing because the sea around Ireland is really good for these.

Now listen to the questions again and choose your answers.

1. Question one - this is the example question:
   When did Sergei learn to ski?

2. Question two:
   Who took part in a national competition in Russia?

3. Question three:
   What did Sergei think about his first winter in Ireland?

   c. Rachel hopes to be an interior designer.
Now listen to Jun interviewing Rachel and circle the correct sentences.
You will hear the interview once only.

JUN: Our next guest, Rachel, is only in second year but already she is a busy young designer. Rachel, tell us about your jewellery.

RACHEL: Hi, Jun. Well, I’ve been making jewellery for about three years. Just small things like earrings at the start but, since last year, larger pieces like bracelets and necklaces too.

JUN: I see, so what do you use to make them?

RACHEL: Oh, nothing expensive, they’re not made of gold! I use recycled materials - like buttons and ribbons from old clothes. Then I get things like beads and wire in a craft shop.

JUN: You didn’t make that ring you’re wearing, did you?

RACHEL: Actually, I did. My cousin was on holiday in South Africa and he brought me back some little wooden elephants. I just painted one of them and used it for this ring.

JUN: But what do you do with your jewellery?

RACHEL: Well, at first I only made things for myself. But my friends thought they were cool, so I gave them stuff too. Then my friend’s mum asked me if she could sell my some of my jewellery in her shop. It’s going on sale next month.

JUN: Wow, you’re in business!

RACHEL: Yeah, kind of, but I can’t spend too much time making things because I’ve so much schoolwork. Anyway, the money isn’t really important, I just want people to like my jewellery.

JUN: So what about the future?

RACHEL: When I finish school I’d love to be a jewellery designer.

Now listen to the sets of sentences again and check your answers.

1. Number one - this is the example set:
   a. Rachel has been making jewellery since second year.

Now Grace is interviewing Jun for the radio project.
First, you will hear some questions about Jun’s opinions.
Read the questions as you listen but do not try to answer them yet.
Question 1 has been answered already.

1. Question one - this is the example:
   How does Jun think the band is getting on?
   You will see a “tick” in the box under the straight face.
   You will hear that Jun thinks the band is doing OK.

2. Question two:
   What does Jun think of rap music?

3. Question three:
   What did Jun think of the band’s first performance?

4. Question four:
   What does Jun think about the band’s future?

5. Question five:
   What does Jun think about putting the band’s music on the Internet?

6. Question six:
   What do Jun’s parents think about Jun playing in the band?

Listen to Grace interviewing Jun now.
Then listen to the questions and tick Jun’s opinions:
The smiling face shows that the opinion is positive.
The straight face shows that the opinion is OK.
The sad face shows the opinion is negative.
You will hear the interview once only.

GRACE: Well you’ve heard from Jun already, but now he’s going to talk about his sensational new band: Wild Side. So, Jun, how does it feel to be a rock star?

JUN: A rock star? Really? That’d be great. Seriously, though, the band’s doing OK. I mean it’s not easy starting up, but we’re getting on well enough.

GRACE: So who’s in the band and what’s your music like?

JUN: Well, I play guitar, there’s Sean on bass, Marco on drums and Niamh, our vocalist. We write our own material – mostly alternative rock stuff. It’s cool ‘cause I love that kind of music. OK, some of the guys like rap as well, but I’m not into it at all.
GRACE: And have you had many performances?

JUN: Yeah, we’ve done a few gigs. The first one was awful, I mean we were so nervous. But the next was OK and after that things got better. Our last gig was really good and loads of people came.

GRACE: So you’re going to be a great success.

JUN: Oh yeah, we’ll be megastars! No, I’m not joking. Sure - everyone says we’ve no chance. But if we keep practising, I know that we could make it!

GRACE: OK, but when’s the big recording deal?

JUN: Hmm... I’m not sure. We thought about launching a few songs on the Internet, but I don’t think it’s a great idea. It’s a bit risky and, anyway, our recording equipment is rubbish. We’ll probably just keep on playing live shows and, hopefully, someone will spot us.

GRACE: And your parents, what do they think about the band?

JUN: At first they hated it. They said we should be concentrating on our schoolwork. But I showed them I could still study hard, so now everything’s alright with them. Actually, they even like our music.

Now listen to the questions again and choose your answers.

1. Question one - this is the example:
   How does Jun think the band is getting on?

2. Question two:
   What does Jun think of rap music?

3. Question three:
   What did Jun think of the band’s first performance?

4. Question four:
   What does Jun think about the band’s future?

5. Question five:
   What does Jun think about putting the band’s music on the Internet?

6. Question six:
   What do Jun’s parents think about Jun playing in the band?

Yesterday I read a very interesting story called Oisín in Tír na n-Óg. It is an Irish legend from a collection of stories about a warrior named Fionn. In this story, Fionn and his men were hunting in County Kerry. His son, Oisín, was with them too. Oisín was a brave young man and also a great poet.
As the men arrived at a lake, they suddenly saw a white horse coming towards them. A beautiful woman was riding the horse. She had long golden hair and she was wearing a dress as blue as the sky. The lady rode up to them and introduced herself as Niamh, the daughter of the king of Tír na n-Óg. She explained that Tír na n-Óg was a land where no-one grew old and she asked Oisín to come back to this magical world with her.

Oisín was already in love with Niamh so he agreed. They were married and spent many happy years in Tír na n-Óg, but Oisín still wanted to visit Ireland again. Niamh told Oisín to take her horse but warned him not to get off it. Oisín didn’t know that he had been away for three hundred years. When he arrived home he met some people and, as he was trying to help them, the saddle on his horse broke and he fell off. Immediately Oisín turned into a very old man but, before he died, he told the people many wonderful stories.

Ben is giving a short talk about television.
First, you will hear some questions about his talk.
Read the questions as you listen but do not try to answer them yet.
Question 1 has been answered already.

1. Question one:
   Which of these does Ben hate?
   a. Spiders.
   b. Mice.
   c. Reality TV shows.
   The correct answer is “c” – reality TV shows.
   You will hear that Ben can’t stand reality TV shows.
2. Question two:
   How often can you watch reality TV shows?
   a. Every evening.
   b. Once or twice a week.
   c. Some nights.

3. Question three:
   Which programme did Ben think was disgusting?
   a. The show about people in a house.
   b. The show about people in the jungle.
   c. The show about people on a boat.

4. Question four:
   How many people actually appear on reality TV shows?
   a. Millions of people.
   b. Hundreds of people.
   c. A few people.

5. Question five:
   What is Ben’s opinion of the programme about children at home?
   a. It’s too serious.
   b. It’s not interesting.
   c. It’s really scary.

6. Question six:
   Which of these statements does Ben think is true?
   a. Reality programmes are expensive to make
   b. There should be more sport on TV
   c. Watching stupid people is interesting

Now listen carefully to Ben speaking and answer the questions.
You will hear Ben speak once only.

Everyone has a pet hate, something that really annoys us. My little sister hates spiders and my Mum freaks out about mice. But there’s only one thing that I can’t stand and that’s reality TV.

Every evening, no matter what channel you watch, you find reality programmes. Maybe once or twice a week there’s a football match as well, or some nights there might be a good film, but that’s only if you’re lucky.

The first really successful reality programme filmed a group of people stuck together in a house. It’s still broadcast every summer. Then they made a show about celebrities trying to live in the jungle. It was revolting - some people even ate insects. There was also a programme about people surviving on a boat. It was ridiculous because the boat sank.

I can’t understand why anyone would want to take part in these programmes, but every year hundreds of people try. Only a few are chosen for the TV and they seem to like making total fools of themselves in front of millions of viewers.

As well as these silly reality shows, there are also more serious ones. These are usually very boring, like the programme showing how kids act when their mother goes on holiday. Then there are the medical programmes showing real operations – they’re scary.

Basically, I think that all these reality shows should be scrapped and we should have more sport, drama and interesting documentaries on TV. Reality programmes might be cheaper to make and they can be very addictive, but we watch TV for enjoyment or for information. Looking at people behaving stupidly or doing dull everyday things is not exactly entertainment.
Now listen to the questions again and choose your answers.

1. Question one - this is the example question:
   Which of these does Ben hate?

2. Question two:

6. Number six:
   a. The language is clear and simple.
   b. The language is fairly easy to understand.
   c. The language is much too difficult.

Listen now to Tanya speaking and circle the correct sentences.
You will hear Tanya speak once only.

Last week we read some poems by Yeats, like “The Lake Isle of Inisfree” and “The Fiddler of Dooney”, but today I want to talk about another poem by this famous poet, called “The Wild Swans at Coole”.

The poem begins with a description of a flock of swans gathered on a calm autumn evening. The poet counts fifty-nine of these birds at the water’s edge and he remembers the first time that he saw the swans, nineteen years ago.

As he watches the swans he thinks about how much his life has changed over the years. He says that his heart is “sore” when he sees the swans now. They seem to remind him of happier times in the past.

The swans remain as beautiful as ever. As the poet looks at pairs of swans paddling together, he notices how they seem to be still in love. Unlike him, the birds have not become tired of life and will one day build new nests again.

At the end of the poem, the peace and harmony that the poet sees in nature, contrasts with his own sorrow. There is even the suggestion of death, as the poet wonders if this could be the last time that he will see the swans. Overall, while the poem is not hopeful, it is very moving.

I enjoyed this poem because the poet uses a description of a simple scene as a way of talking about life itself. I liked the language used in the poem because at times it sounded almost like music. Also, because the language was not too difficult to understand, I think that the message of the poem was quite clear.

Now listen to the sets of sentences again and check your answers.

1. Number one - this is the example set:
   a. She will talk about “The Wild Swans at Coole”.
   b. She will talk about “The Fiddler of Dooney”.

Set 3
Level B1. (iii)

Ben and Tanya have written a short play in drama class. First, you will hear some questions about the play. Then you will hear Ben and Tanya performing their play. Read the questions as you listen but do not try to answer them yet. Question 1 has been answered already.

1. Question one - this is the example:
   Is Tanya sad because of a problem at school?
   You will see a “tick” in the box under the minus sign.
   You will hear that Tanya thinks that school is OK.

2. Question two:
   What does Tanya think of Amy now?

3. Question three:
   Did Tanya want to go shopping last Saturday?

4. Question four:
   Did Tanya like the necklace?

5. Question five:
   What did the other customer say?

6. Question six:
   What does Tanya think about telling a teacher?

Listen to Ben and Tanya performing their play now. Then listen to the questions and tick the correct responses:

The plus sign shows a positive response.
The question mark shows a response that is neither positive nor negative.
The minus sign shows a negative response.
You will hear the play once only.

BEN: Tanya, why are you crying?
TANYA: Leave me alone, Ben.
BEN: But what’s wrong, did something happen in school?
TANYA: No, school’s OK... Oh I might as well tell you...
BEN: What?
TANYA: You know Amy in our class?
BEN: Yeah.
TANYA: Well we’ve been friends for ages but now I don’t know if I should have anything to do with her.
BEN: Why?
TANYA: She’s changed, like.
BEN: What do you mean?
TANYA: Well, last Saturday she phoned me and told me to come shopping with her. I was just back from swimming and I didn’t even want to go, but she kept saying I had to come with her, it’d be good fun.
BEN: So?
TANYA: So I said OK.
BEN: Then what?
TANYA: OK, we went into this shop, and we were looking around when Amy saw this expensive necklace behind the counter and asked me what I thought of it.
BEN: Yeah?
TANYA: I said it was lovely – I mean not like I wanted it or anything - and Amy just reached over the counter, took the necklace, stuck it in my bag and ran out of the shop.
BEN: And what did you do?
TANYA: I went to put the necklace back, but then a shop assistant came over and started accusing me of stealing it.
BEN: No way!
TANYA: Yeah, she was going to report me to the manager when another customer, who must’ve been standing behind us at the time, came over and said I didn’t do it.
BEN: You were lucky.
TANYA: I know, but now what to do?
BEN: You should tell someone, Tanya. I mean Amy’s only going to get herself in trouble, and you as well.
TANYA: But who can I talk to, Ben? I can’t tell my parents - they’d go crazy.
BEN: What about one of the teachers? They’d understand.
TANYA: Yeah, maybe. I just want to get out of this mess before it gets any worse.

Now listen to the questions again and choose your answers.
